The Superintendent presented a com-munication from Miss Virginia Corse in eference to the use of a room in Peabody building for library purposes, and after explaining the matter recommended that the Ladies' Library Association begranted the use of the library books and the Assembly rooms for library purposes. He said the ladies wanted the use of the room for about two hours a day, free of rent, but that they would have to provide fuel and pay the jani-tor. He said such use of the As embly rooms would not interfere with the schools. His recommendation was

The election of teachers being in order, on recommendation of the Superintendent all the white teachers were re-elected, as follows;

C. M. ADAMS

Intermediate Welght polka dots. UNDERWEAR.

We have received several cases of heavy Woolen Underwear for winter trade, but cannot think of asking buyers to dress in these weighty garments. We supply the present want with a light weight Woolen, about two numbers heavier than the summer wear This will protect the body from all sudden changes in the weather during fall months All our heavy woolen purchases were made in the month of May and the new tariff bill will not familiarize itself with the new warm protectors received later on.

American Lady Corsets;

The demand for this Corset is greater than all other makes combined offered in this city I "The Dixie" Mosquito Nets and Frames They fit, wear and retain their shape longer than many prominent makes extensively advertised at enormously high prices with no merit. Comfort is the great secret of this Corset. If you want an ill fitting Corset that will keep the shadow of insanity dancing before the optic nerve, buy one with the word "seconds" stamped thereon. After wesring one of these killing machines for about a week, life will seem a failure, suicide a
